

St Patrick and the Shamrock

Fourth century St. Patrick went to Ireland as a missionary. The legend of St. Patrick teaching the Irish about God tells of how he used the shamrock. Since the shamrock has three small leaves he described God as being "one" but having three parts. God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. The whole plant represents the Trinity.